Inspections are a fact of life.

We deal with them every day in our jobs and in our daily lives.

Many members see the Compliance Inspection as a pain in the rear, an inconvenience, as a lack of trust by higher headquarters.

National HQ and CAP-USAF are required to inspect each wing and each wing is required to inspect each of their units. These inspections insure that CAP and its units are accomplishing its missions, controlling its resources properly and is meeting the requirements as set forth in CAP Regulations, Air Force Policy and the law.

National HQ and CAP-USAF are required to inspect each wing and each wing is required to inspect each of their units on a regular schedule.

Inspectors are pulled from CAP-USAF and senior officers (normally National, region and wing level IG staff and subject matter experts).

The inspection is actually an opportunity for the PAO. It's an opportunity to grow as a PAO, to learn and understand the program and to showcase your successful program to Higher HQ.

Let's see how this is the case and how you can get ready by following simple and proven techniques used by Senior and Master PAO's all over the nation.

Getting Ready

Ideally you should always be ready for an inspection.

The inspector will come in and review his check list with you and ask questions in relation to your program. Note that he does not have to ask questions that may be on the list but can ask about any aspect of your program area.

So let's start with the records that you need to have.

CAPR 10-2 prescribes that the Unit Administrative Officer ensures that files and records that relate to your area will be maintained.

The Reality

- We keep our own records outside of HQ
- Most records are a mix of paper and pixels
- Most of us work from our homes
- Most records not physically at HQ
- We don't back-up our records

Now for the reality. Most PAO's maintain their own records. You have options as to how you can maintain them.

Most PAO's maintain their records as a combination of electronic and paper files. This is fine but you need to have a file plan on file with the Administrative Officer indicating what kinds of records you have.

It is suggested that you back up your records and store this back-up off site or with the Squadron Administrative Officer.

Please take a moment to review the file plan on page 16 of this guide. On Page 17 you will find the rules that govern what records need to be maintained and for how long.

Now that you have a plan for your files and your files match that plan, let's look at how you can present your program to the inspector.

The Continuity Book

Continuity books are as old as the military itself. They are a very important tool for a new officer coming into a role. It allows him to see at a glance where the program or unit is. Or at least it should be.

The Content of Your Continuity Book

- Discuss each tab and review sample book
- The importance of your PA Plan and Crisis Communications Plan
- Have supporting materials in separate binders or electronically
- Have your supporting files with you at the inspection
- Importance of regular updates

Organization

- Each tab corresponds roughly to the Inspection Check List
- The first page of each tab is the question then your response and supporting materials
- If successful it shows compliance and any of your pluses/extras
- Have a copy for the inspector to take with them

Continuity/Inspection Book

Questions and Notes:

Each of these questions should be a tab in your book. The first page (or cover sheet) should be the question with your detailed answers. Yes or No are NOT ACCEPTABLE answers. Any additional supporting materials should be included after the cover sheet or in supporting files.

A nice touch is to provide the inspector their own copy of this book. This way when they are writing their report they can refer right to it. He will be taking less notes and paying more attention to you. ☺

A sample of a completed Inspection book and templates to create your own are on the resource disk.

These questions are taken from the SUI guide that is dated January 2008. Please note that the PA questions are under revision.

1.	Has a unit Public Affairs Officer (PAO) been appointed in writing?	CAPR 20-1 page 39; CAPR 190-1 para 3a;
	a. Has the next higher headquarters been notified of the appointment?
	b. Has the unit PAO completed AFIADL PAO Course 02010?	CAPR 35-1
	c. If a unit PAO has not been appointed, is the unit commander performing the duties of the PAO?	CAPR 190-1 para 3b CAPR 190-1 para 6b
		CAPR 190-1 para 3c

CAPR 190-1, paragraph 3 mandates that a PAO must be appointed or the Commander is responsible.

3. Assignment of the Public Affairs Officer (PAO).

- a. Each unit commander shall appoint a qualified individual to be the PAO.
- b. The PAO shall be appointed in accordance with current personnel procedures in CAPR 35-1, Assignment and Duty Status. The next higher headquarters shall also be notified of all PAO appointments.
- c. In the absence of an assigned PAO, the unit commander is responsible for the duties of the PAO.

- Make sure that you send a copy of the CAPF 2A or the Personnel Authorization to your higher headquarters. Also insure that this appointment is reflected in E-services and the member is enrolled in the specialty track. It is suggested that you do this via e-mail so you have a record of the communication.
- The AFAIDL Course 02010 is under revision and not available for enrollment. The IG can't gig you on this.
- Note that the commander can delegate the PAO functions to his deputy. This must be done in writing with a copy to higher headquarters.

- Outline how you are learning or have learned the PA function as outlined in CAPP 201.
- List what training that you have completed (include copies of certificates if available.)
- The AFAIDL Course is under revision and not available.
- Have copies of the announcements of training from your wing and region available including SAREXES and MIO related training. Include info from the National PAO Academy.
- Have copies of training information from FEMA (Online courses) your state and local disaster response agencies.
- I suggest that if possible take online training that is provided for free by FEMA and other agencies.
- List links here.
- If your wing/region is not offering training have a copy of your e-mail requesting the training that you need and their response.

This item is where you will live or die as far as the inspection goes.

Have a PA and Crisis Communications Plan that is compliant with CAPR 190-1.

- Are both plans current?
- Has it been approved by the Wing Commander or designee as per the wing supplement to CAPR 190-1? Is this approval in writing?
- Is there a review of the plan to measure if goals have been met and if needed the plan being updated? Is there a record of this review?
- Have you exercised the Crisis Communications Plan? This is not required but if you do it and document it, you will get some extra points. ☺
- Is the Wing PAO involved in the authoring or review of the plans?

Templates of approved plans are available at the CAP National Website at:

http://www.cap.gov/visitors/members/public_affairs/

4.	Has the unit PAO assembled current media contact information to foster working relationships? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Does the unit PAO strive to meet periodically with representatives of key media to improve media awareness of CAP and to establish an understanding on the part of the PAO of the information needs and preferences of each media outlet. ----	--	-----------------------

- To support this item you should have a list of your local media (newspapers, radio, tv, Cable Access and Bloggers) and list how and when you reached out to them.
- Have a copy of the media kit you developed available as a sample.
- List s of media can be obtained online.

Suggested Text: (use your websites.)

We use several websites that update their contact lists on a regular basis as our primary lists. This saves me the time of maintaining a standard media contact list.

Source	Website	Comments
MN Broadcasters Assn	http://www.minnesotabroadcasters.com/	TV and Radio Stations
News Voyager News Hompages	http://www.newspaperlinks.com/newspaperlist.cfm?sid=mn	Listing of papers
MN Newspaper Assn	http://www.mna.org/	Association of MN Papers maintains a great directory
AF Association media	http://capwiz.com/afa/dbq/media/	Well kept roster of contacts by state

Also during a mission go to www.ap.org for the AP Bureaus in your state. This is especially valuable during actual missions. They can get your releases out to your state and nationwide faster and more efficiently than you could manually.

5.	Has the Unit PAO developed standard plans and procedures for external promotion of key events in the wing, such as participation in training and actual missions, awards and promotions, and special events?	CAPR 190-1 para 7b(3)

Outline how you do publicity for items like

- Milestone Awards
- Significant Achievements
- Missions (Actual and Training)
- Unit Open Houses

While you do not have to have a formal plan for these events it is good to have a process and have it in an outline format. The outline should be simple (bullet points) and short.

Also have copies of actual releases/printed articles/TV and radio stories for recent occurrences.

6.	Has the unit PAO assembled standard materials presenting the background of CAP that can be given to the media, prospective members, partner agency officials, and others as needed, including materials developed locally and/or at higher headquarters?	CAPR 190-1 para 7b(4)

Have copies of these promotional materials available organized into media kits for the inspector to review.

These should be printed out or on a laptop for easy review by the inspector.

Key Items regarding promotional materials

- Are they easy to read?
- Are they pleasing to the eye?
- Are they local (local pictures, local quotes)?
- Are you duplicating materials issued by higher headquarters?
- Are you using materials provided by CAP National HQ? If no why not?

Do you have copies of local broadcast/radio stories that you use in your local promotional materials?

Do you use the CAP Journal DVD provided by CAP National HQ?

Does your unit use cadet produced materials? If so please provide samples.

7.	Does the unit PAO utilize available unit websites to inform the public about Civil Air Patrol?	CAPR 190-1 para 7b(6)
----	--	-----------------------

- Does the unit have a website or at least a page on the Wing Website with contact information? If no why not.
- What is the role of the PAO in local site development?
- Are cadets involved in the development of the site content?
- What is the role of the unit IT Officer?
- Does the site duplicate content from Higher Headquarters?
- Is the unit Newsletter posted on the site?
- When was the site last updated?
- Are there links to the Wing and National Sites on your unit site?
- Is the site in compliance with CAPR 110-1 and OPSEC requirements?
- Does the wing provide hosting or is the unit using available low cost hosting available at www.ns1.cap.gov ?

8.	Does the unit PAO: a. Advise the commander on internal public relations strategies and methods in order to conduct an effective program? b. Regularly submit news advisories and releases, with photographs whenever possible, to higher HQs?	CAPR 190-1 para 7c(1) CAPR 190-1 para 7c(2)
----	--	--

- This can be documented as part of the planning process. When where and results.
- Does the PAO meet with the Commander on a regular basis? Document with memo for record or other documentation.
- Are the PAO Objectives and Goals reviewed as part of these regular meetings? Documentation?
- Is the PAO directly supervised by the Commander?
- Is staff/leadership input solicited in the management of the unit PA program?
- Present copies of releases issued and/or published in the last year. Are photos included with releases?
- Is the unit sending copies of releases to wing, region and National HQ/PA?

9.	Does the Wing PAO create and distribute a regular newsletter which contains information for both the internal and external audiences?	CAPR 190-1 para 8a
----	--	---------------------------

- Does the unit publish a newsletter?
- Have copies of the last year's newsletters available for the inspector.
- Are the newsletters posted to the website?
- How are the newsletters distributed? Who gets them?
- Are newsletters sent to higher headquarters (including Wing, Region and National)?

10.	Does the unit PAO ensure that all distributed multimedia materials, including those distributed by emerging technologies, shall be in good taste, with members shown in proper uniform, depicting the diverse and multi-faceted missions and opportunities of Civil Air Patrol membership	CAPR 190-1 para 9a
-----	--	---------------------------

- Briefly explain how this is done and provide samples of these materials. Including materials that you use from higher headquarters.
- Are these materials approved by the commander prior to release?
- Are cadets involved in creating Multi-Media content? If content is wholly cadet created is the PAO involved in mentoring the cadets and approving content prior to release?
- Does the unit use the nationally produced "CAP Journal" Video Magazine?

11.	Does the unit PAO have the authority to develop and coordinate the public affairs elements of electronic communications tools employed by the unit for internal and external communications, including unit websites and listservs, which automatically broadcast e-mail to everyone on a list. The content shall be created in collaboration with appropriate staff members and shall be facilitated by the staff member(s) designated as webmaster, listserv manager and/or information technology officer.	CAPR 190-1 para 10

- Explain how this is done in your unit.
- Don't forget to address websites, blogs, You Tube pages, my space sites that you or your unit manages.

12.	Please describe the Mission Information Officer program for your unit.	CAPR 190-1 para 11
-----	--	--------------------

- Describe how and if you are trained as an MIO and your involvement in Operational missions. If you are not trained describe how you plan on accomplishing this. (Note that MIO is a big part of the Senior PAO Rating in the PAO Specialty Track.)
- Describe your PA/Marketing/Communication training needs. (Unit and Personal).
- Describe how ES qualified members are made aware of the MIO and his role in a mission and how are you as an MIO making the members of your unit/wing aware of the National Commander's guidance of 25 March 2008 quoted below?

To all Region and Wing Commanders:

The newly revised CAPR 190-1 requires a trained and certified MIO, in accordance with CAPR 60-3, to handle media relations for every mission and training exercise. The MIO is to provide and receive critical information, advise the incident commander, protect the image of the Civil Air Patrol and provide timely information to the public affairs staff of each higher headquarters.

There is a critical need to always follow this regulation, especially when performing Air Force assigned missions (AFAMs), to ensure that media inquiries are handled properly and interviews are conducted in a professional manner. CAP MIOs are trained and certified to carry out such duties, and only they are authorized to do so.

With this in mind, please ensure that when an AFAM is conducted, all members in your region and wing follow procedures as outlined in CAPR 190-1. Also, please remind all your members that all contact with the news media regarding specific missions and other incidents (especially when possible fatalities are involved) "must be made by a corporate officer, Incident Commander, or PAO/MIO ONLY."

Thanks for your diligence in adhering to this requirement.

Brig. Gen. Amy S. Courter
Interim CAP National Commander

Describe how your involvement as an MIO supports your units ES program and how it supports the wing. Describe how.

13.	How do you inform the Wing PAO of unit PAO activities??	CAPR 190-1 para 12

- Provide copies of reports required by your wing. IF reports are not required you might want to include copies of e-mail correspondence with your higher HQ PAO as evidence you are updating him.
- If reporting is not required describe how you communicate and coordinate your work with your Wing PAO. If possible describe specific instances how your Wing PAO was or was not helpful.

It's Inspection Day

Now that you have your book, files and program in order it's time to see the IG.

Here are a couple of things to remember:

Make sure you are organized. Nothing leaves a worse impression than an unorganized officer with files strewn about. Have your files organized in a banker's box, plastic file case or on your laptop.

Make sure your uniform is in perfect order. If your uniform is wrong this leaves a really bad impression. The IG will be wondering what else is wrong if you can't even appear in the correct uniform with correct insignia and meeting grooming standards.

Be pleasant and open. The IG is there to do his job. Your job is to cooperate. Do this with a smile and a firm handshake. Show up grumpy and you will be treated as such. Don't forget your customs and courtesies. "Yes sir" and "no sir" will go a long way.

Don't hide anything and don't LIE! If you have not done something tell the inspector and let him know when an item will be complete. Nothing is worse than withholding information or lying to an inspector and they find out. Your CAP career may be in jeopardy at that point.

Tell the IG if you have problems or are not in compliance with an item on the list or a regulation. Telling the IG is not a get out of jail free card. When you tell the IG that for example you do not have a PA Plan you need to tell him when you will and what steps you are taking to get it ready. If it's an issue that a Higher HQ must resolve say so, it will not be held against you. It may be an issue for the Higher HQ to remedy.

Showcase what you have done and what your plans for the future are. This is your time to shine. Most are hesitant to "Show off" but the IG cannot know about your successes unless you tell and show them.

Use your assistants. Example: If you have a newsletter editor have him/her answer questions and present on the newsletter.

Don't create a Potemkin Village. Don't go thru the effort or creating a non existent program. Show what you are actually doing. You will be surprised by the size and scope of your program when it's all assembled for inspection.

Don't forget that the IG is human. He may or may not be an expert in your area. Your goal should be that by the time the IG is done with you that he will be an expert on your program.

Follow this strategy and your inspection and PA program management will be successful.

How Inspections Can Be Of Value to You

Inspections can be of value to you as a PAO for a number of basic reasons:

Value to You

- Learn your job
- Learn what does HHQ expect from your position/program
- Someone else's perspective
- Helps you to review program effectiveness
- Ideas for improvement (the nugget)

Additional Tools

There are a number of additional aids to you in preparing for an inspection.

Look at your wing's inspection report. This will tell you what the inspectors are looking for from the wing HQ.

Unit SUI Reports are a good indicator of what the Wing inspection teams are looking for. Your Commander should be able to get redacted versions of these for you.

The Wing and or Region PAO is there to help your unit. They can help you prepare and offer ideas and suggestions. Remember that they can be of real help to you in crafting the PA and Crisis Communications Plans.

Units can request a Staff Assistance Visit. This is basically a dry run of an inspection with no grades. Observations are made of the good and the bad. These observations are shared with the commander in a report. The commander and staff uses this report as a additional guide in getting inspection ready.

Wing and Region PAO's

- Need to be involved as resources to the IG (Subject Matter Experts)
- Should serve on SUI Teams
- Should do Staff Assistance Visits
- Must work with subordinate PAO's
- Should help the units with PA/Crisis Plans
- Senior/Master PAO's are the experts

The resources discussed here can be downloaded at:

www.ncrpao.org/inspections

Good luck with your next inspection.
