Helpful Notes

Dress: Uniform for the General Assembly and Learning Labs is the Short Sleeve Blue Combination (Air Force or CAP Distinctive) with no tie or the Short Sleeve Aviator Shirt combination with no tie. Wear your uniform with pride.

Banquet Attire: Senior Member Officers and NCO's may wear Service Dress (USAF or CAP Distinctive), the Blazer Combination (Standard or Dress Version), Mess Dress or appropriate civilian attire. Cadets may wear Service Dress, the Cadet Semi-formal Combination or appropriate civilian attire.

Alcoholic Beverages: As in our previous Region Conference we will have cadets present at the Dinner to help us celebrate and honor our members. To set the good example, there will be no alcohol served at an open bar or during the Awards Dinner. There is a bar in the hotel that can accommodate anyone after the banquet and awards program.

Banquet Table Reservations: Banquet seating will be open seating except for designated tables for VIP's

Personal Safety: Please do not leave anything of value unattended. Take precautions. Also pre-plan a fire escape route. Use the buddy system and watch out for your friends.

Conference Conduct: All attendees are expected to behave appropriately at all times to show proper respect for our organization. When in uniform, all customs and courtesies will be honored to show pride in our uniforms and ourselves.

As much information will be given at the General Assembly and Learning Labs, all attendees are expected to be in attendance.

To ensure proper rest for you and others, cadets and their guests will be in their own rooms and quiet per the schedule in this program. There will be no activity in the halls before 0600.
